APPOINTMENT OF INTERIM PRINCIPAL FOR CALGARY CHRISTIAN SECONDARY SCHOOL

We are pleased to announce that Harry Fritschy has been appointed to the role of Interim Principal for Calgary Christian Secondary School commencing August 27, 2018.

Harry is no stranger to Calgary Christian Schools. As a Principal of both Calgary Christian Elementary and Calgary Christian Secondary, Harry served CCS from 2002 until 2014, at which time, he accepted the role of Principal at Kate Andrews High School until his retirement in 2017. Prior to his work with Calgary Christian Schools, Harry was a Teacher/Principal at Houston Christian School from 1979 until 1986. He later assumed the Principal role with Duncan Christian Secondary from 1990 until 2002.

Harry received the Administrator's Excellence in Leadership Award in 2011. He has also served as Chair for the Administrative Association of the Prairie Association of Christian Schools and Chair of the Administrative Association for Palliser Regional Schools. Harry was integrally involved in the committee to engage the Calgary Christian community in alternative school status with Palliser Regional Schools. The result was Calgary Christian Schools was able to join Palliser as an alternative Christian school in 2008.

Graduating with a Bachelor of Education degree from the University of Manitoba in 1979, Harry also completed numerous leadership courses at Trinity Western University from 1986 until 1999.

Harry is married to his wonderful wife, Eleanor and together they have raised 5 daughters. In his spare time, Harry enjoys spending time with his family, savoring the great outdoors and camping.

Harry is thrilled to return to Calgary Christian Secondary School and is looking forward to re-joining the Administrative Council and working alongside Calgary Christian Schools' Society. He welcomes the exciting challenges this role will provide.

Congratulations Harry!
