Dear Pastor:

The above family is applying to have their child/ren enrolled at Calgary Christian School. We would appreciate your taking the time to fully answer the following questions on their behalf. CCS believes strongly in the partnership among home, church, and school in the raising of children to become active, responsive Kingdom citizens; a commitment in a Christian community is required to achieve this.

- How long has this family been attending your church?

- How does this family serve your congregation and participate in church activities and ministries? Please specify for both parents and the children.

- Further comments:
