The idea for the CCS Community Maker Box was inspired by the many, many Creators within the CCS community. Products ranging from home decor, bath products, jewelry, and much more filled this Spring Edition, the second iteration, of the project. Making the perfect Mother's Day gift and highlighting Makers including alumni, students and current families - the Box was truly remarkable! Learn more on our website.

From editor, Ms. Stewart:

The CCS times has been a wonderful opportunity for grade seven students to demonstrate their love of writing through journalism. I have loved watching how creative this group is and by the end they were essentially planning, writing, and editing it all by themselves. I hope to continue running CCS times in the future and allow for more students to join in!
