

All Families

The CSCE Board is asking for your help to identify parents who could serve as a member of our Board. Our next election is in May, and we are looking to fill one vacant position. Details on who can serve and how to nominate can be found here on our website.

February Break is coming next week! No classes February 20-24 for Family Day and Teachers Convention.

Do you have the board games Monopoly, or the Game of Life that you're willing to part with? If you have an extra set that is collecting dust please email: katherine.stewart@pallisersd.ab.ca who would like to use them for the High School CALM Class. Thank-you!

One last student banking with the Christian Credit Union for the month of February - this Wed, February 15.

Lent to Easter Devotional:

This year, CCS is offering a devotion to all our students and families. The Unvarnished Jesus: A Lenten Journey by Brian Zahnd starts February 22. Pastor Layne says that "this devotional connects to our school's Christ-centred focus." Content will be posted each day (weekends and off-school days included) and at times staff will do the readings. On school days, students will follow these devotions in their first class. Click here to follow along. You can download an e-version of the book for free at www.amazon.ca
