

Join MCC Alberta for a weekend of events to engage in conversations around the polarization we are feeling in our congregations and communities.

Fri, Nov 3 In Tune: Pastors & Church Leaders

Brentview Baptist Church

9am-4pm

$50.00 (lunch included), group rate available for 3+ from the same church/organization

$15.00 student rate

This day is designed to name the impact of polarization within congregations, give a theological framework centered on Jesus, for leading through challenging circumstances and provide practical tools for navigating conflict. Facilitators include Adam Dyer, Executive Director of Jesus Collective and Conflict, Change, and Leadership Specialist, Betty Pries.

Fri, Nov 3 Sweet Harmony: An Evening with Tareq Hadhad, Founder & CEO, Peace by Chocolate

Ambrose University, Airhart Room

7pm

$100.00

Join us for this marquee fundraising event including Tareq's story, delicious dessert and live music, to support MCC's settlement work with refugees and newcomers in Alberta.

Tareq Hadhad was a Syrian refugee and is now living his life with his entrepreneurial family in Canada's east coast. Tareq will share what can happen when people open their arms and offer kindness in another person's time of need. Peace, it truly is beautiful in every language.

Sat, Nov 4 In Tune Conference \(9am-4pm\)

Ambrose University

9am-4pm

$60.00 (lunch included), group rate available for 3+ from the same church/organization

$15.00 student rate

This day will begin with worship and a keynote address by Betty Pries, "Nurturing Communities of Belonging". Workshops will follow on topics like: Poverty & Peace, Politicized Issues through a Peace Lens, Self-Leadership, Indigenous Awareness, and Refugee Sponsorship, Transforming Polarized Conversations. with support from Jesus Collective and Ambrose University.

A full schedule of events and speaker information is available at <https://intune2023.sched.com/>

Event contact:

Rebecca Schnell, Community Engagement Coordinator, MCC AB

